

INDUCTION PROGRAMME

Friday 20 September 2024

TOURS

09:30 Tour of Senate House Library

Limited places registration required – Click this link to RSVP

Attendance is optional

Guide: Academic Librarians, Senate House Library

10:30 Bus Tour of Central London

Limited places registration required – Click this link to RSVP

Attendance is optional

PRESENTATIONS

Location: Chancellor's Hall, First Floor, South Block, Senate House, Malet Street

All sessions will be recorded

13:00 International Student Welcome – [Visa holders only]

Presentation for visa holding students on their visa conditions and responsibilities

Presenter: Kate Koblos, Admissions Officer

14:00 Welcome to the School

Introduction to SAS and SAS Registry

Presenter: Elaine Walters, Deputy Chief Executive of the School of Advanced Study and Director of Operations for Senate House Library

14:20 Introduction to Senate House Library

Introductory session will focus on how to make the most of the Senate House Library collections and resources'

SCHOOL OF ADVANCED STUDY UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

Presenters: Leila Kassir and Mura Ghosh, Senate House Library

14:40 Student Wellbeing Support at SAS

An overview of the support available to SAS students, focusing on disability support, mental health and emotional wellbeing.

Presenters: Katie Wood, Equality Focus

10-minute break at 15:00(pm)

15:10 Careers

Introducing the bespoke careers seminar programme and services for research students offered by the University's Careers Group: support to find part-time work during your studies and to help you prepare for your next career step

Presenter: Rosie Baber, Careers Group, University of London

15:30 SASiety, Student Association

Presenters: Elena Zolotariof, Member of SASiety

15:50 Student Experience

Presenters: Sarah Capes, Current student

16:10 Research Training

Presenters: Simon Trafford, IHR Director of Studies and Director of The Doctoral Centre

16:30 Dean's Welcome and Student Social Event

A warm welcome from the Dean of the School. A chance to socialise with your cohort and academic teams over drinks and nibbles.

19:00 End