IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Last revised: August 2024

Please Note: These Terms and Conditions are administered by the School of Advanced Study, University of London. The study of programmes through other Central Academic bodies of the University of London or at federation members of the University of London are governed by separate Terms and Conditions. Other Central Academic Bodies of the University of London are University of London Worldwide and the University of London Institute in Paris.

See the individual websites for further information.

Please Read Carefully: Key Changes applied to Terms and Conditions 2024-2025

- I. The University of London Student Complaints and Academic Appeals Procedure has been separated into two separate procedures, a Student Complaints Procedure and an Academic Appeals Procedure. Both procedures can be found by accessing the link in clause 1.3.4

1 INTRODUCTION

1.1 By accepting your Offer, or by continuing your registration, you are entering into a Contract with the University (“us”, “we”, “our”, or the “University”) for this Academic Year in accordance with these Terms and Conditions. If you have any questions or concerns about your Contract, you should contact us using the Contact Us link (<https://www.sas.ac.uk/about-us/contact-us>) on our website before accepting the Offer. Where any words are capitalised throughout these Terms and Conditions, they shall have the meanings set out below.

1.2 Definitions

In these Terms and Conditions:

Term	Meaning
“Academic Year”	An Academic Year starts in October or January of any given calendar year, and may have entry points throughout this period.
“Administration Fee”	means the fee payable to cover processing of your registration.
“Application Fee”	means the non-refundable fee for your application to be considered by us.
“Cancellation Date”	has the meaning set out in clause 15.2.
“Contract”	means the agreement between you and us in relation to your studying a Programme through the University. These Terms and Conditions and the regulations, policies and procedures referred to in this document form the Contract.
“Fee Payment Methods”	means the payment methods set out on our website.
“Offer”	means an offer of a place on a Programme.
“Programme”	means your prospective or registered programme of study with the University. This includes individual modules where studied individually.
“Registration Deadline”	means the last date for online or in person registration with us as notified to you in the Offer.
“SAS Libraries”	means the libraries of any or all of the Institutes.

Term	Meaning
“Tuition Fee”	means the fee you are required to pay to register with us for each Academic Year.
“University”	means the University of London, and/or acting through its School of Advanced Study (“SAS”). SAS comprises the following: Institute of Advanced Legal Studies; Institute of Classical Studies; Institute of Commonwealth Studies; Institute of English Studies; Institute of Historical Research; Institute of Languages, Cultures and Societies; Institute of Philosophy; The Warburg Institute; (each an “Institute”); and Central Academic Initiatives (Public Engagement and Knowledge Exchange; Refugee Law Initiative; and Digital Humanities Hub).
“University of London Student Complaints Procedures and Academic Appeals Procedures”	means our Academic Appeals Procedures and Student Complaints Procedures which can be found by accessing the links set out in clause 1.3.
“Virtual Learning Environment”	means the virtual learning environment that provides you with access to your Programme materials.

- 1.3 There are other regulations, policies and procedures which apply to your registration (or continuing registration) at the University and your Programme. These can be found in the table below. It is your responsibility to read these documents carefully and comply with them as they form part of the Contract between us and you. You acknowledge that you may be required to accept a third party’s terms to use their platform or software for the delivery of your Programme or assessments.

BEFORE YOU REGISTER

2 APPLICATION

- 2.1 We will only assess your application once you have paid any Application Fee applicable to your Programme.
- 2.2 It is your responsibility to ensure that all of the information, which you provide to us, is true, accurate, and complete, and that you have not omitted any key information.
- 2.3 If we discover that your application contains incorrect or fraudulent information or if you are found to have omitted key information from your application, we may withdraw or amend any Offer, or act in accordance with the University's regulations and policies, including terminating your registration without compensating you and/or revoking any subsequent award.

3 EVIDENCE OF QUALIFICATIONS

Where we require satisfactory evidence of your qualifications:

- 3.1 Before receiving your Offer, you will be required to provide or facilitate the provision of verified copies of your transcripts and/or certificates. Acceptable means of providing these documents and their verification are set out in our Admissions Policy.
- 3.2 Upon registration you will be required to provide evidence of your qualification and photographic evidence of your identity for verification by the University. If the evidence is not to our satisfaction, this may prevent us from proceeding with registration.

4 OFFERS

- 4.1 If you meet the academic requirements and any other applicable requirements for admission upon making your application to us, we will make you an Offer. Your offer of admission is subject to our Admissions Policy relating to your qualifications, proficiency in English, tuition fee status, and agreement to pay tuition fees. The Admissions Policy, along with any particular conditions or requirements, were set out in our Offer to you.

- 4.2 If you do not yet meet the requirements for admission upon making your application to us, you will receive an advice letter sent via email setting out any outstanding academic and/or other requirements for admission that you will need to satisfy within a timeframe set out in that letter.
- 4.3 Once you notify us that you have satisfied any outstanding requirements and have provided evidence that is acceptable to us, both within the timeframe set out in the advice letter, we will make you an Offer.
- 4.4 If you have not satisfied the requirements set out in the Offer by the start of the next Academic Year, your Offer will lapse and you will have to reapply.

5 CHANGES TO AN OFFER

- 5.1 We may make changes to the Offer at any time before you accept it. We will inform you as soon as possible and issue an updated Offer.

REGISTERING AS A STUDENT

6 ACCEPTANCE OF AN OFFER

- 6.1 If you have met all the academic and/or other requirements for admission and have received an Offer from us, you can accept the Offer by responding to the prompt in the Offer.
- 6.2 If you do not register with us online by the Registration Deadline, your place on the Programme will lapse.

7 CHANGES TO THE PROGRAMME

- 7.1 Changes prior to registration: Due to the period between prospectus publication and registration, circumstances may change due to factors beyond our reasonable control and therefore it may sometimes be necessary to vary the content of the Programme or services described in the prospectus. We will use reasonable efforts to ensure that changes are kept to a minimum, but if we are required to make any material changes to your Programme (as described in the Offer and/or prospectus)

before you register at the University, we shall bring these to your attention as soon as possible;

If you reasonably believe that the proposed change will adversely affect you, you may withdraw your application for the Programme or apply to another programme offered by us for which you are qualified.

7.2 Cancellation of Programme prior to registration: We will use all reasonable efforts to deliver all Programmes described in the prospectus. However, if there are insufficient student numbers either to make a Programme viable or to deliver a quality student experience, we may cancel the Programme. If you have received an offer for any Programme described in the prospectus, but we discontinue the Programme prior to you registering at the University, we will notify you as soon as possible and, where possible, we will recommend a replacement University programme or a programme of one of the University's member institutions for which you are qualified. If we are unable to provide a suitable replacement programme, or if you are unhappy with the recommended replacement programme, you may withdraw your application. Where you withdraw your application in these circumstances, any Application Fee paid by you will be refunded.

7.3 Changes after registration: Once you have registered as a student of the University we will use our reasonable efforts to deliver your Programme as per the terms of the Contract.

7.3.1 In circumstances where there is no material disadvantage to you, we reserve the right to make minor variations to the contents or methods of delivery of Programmes from those described in the prospectus. These will be made to improve the quality of the educational services, to meet the latest requirements of a commissioning or accrediting body, or in response to student feedback. We will notify you of these changes by posting the updated Programme information on our website and drawing the specific changes to your attention and, where reasonably practicable, providing notification to you (whether to you specifically or generally to the UoL student population).

7.3.2 Following suitable consultation with affected students, in circumstances where it is necessary to make a material change to your Programme (such as the nature of the award or in relation to a material aspect of the curriculum), we will notify you as soon as possible. If you are unhappy with the material change(s) to your Programme, you may cancel the Contract and withdraw from the Programme without incurring any further liability for Programme Fees. You may be entitled to a refund of Tuition Fees.

7.4 Discontinuing a Programme after registration:

- 7.4.1 We will give as much notice as possible and in any event no less than one years' advance notice if we decide to discontinue a Programme.
- 7.4.2 If we are forced to discontinue your Programme because of matters beyond our control, we will inform you as soon as is reasonably possible. We will use all reasonable efforts to transfer you to a suitable replacement University programme or a programme of one of the University's member institutions for which you are qualified. If we are unable to provide a suitable replacement programme, or if you are unhappy with the recommended replacement programme, you may cancel the Contract and withdraw from the Programme without incurring any further liability for Tuition Fees. You may be entitled to a refund of Tuition Fees.

8 STUDYING ON THE PROGRAMME

8.1 We shall:

- 8.1.1 deliver your Programme with reasonable care and skill and in accordance with the description applied to it in the Programme Specifications for the Academic Year; and
- 8.1.2 clearly outline the academic requirements for the Programme to you.

8.2 You shall:

- 8.2.1 comply with the regulations outlined in the Quality Assurance Framework, and in any associated School or University policy;
- 8.2.2 obtain any clearance or permission that may be necessary for you to study in your country of residence on the Programme. In this respect, you acknowledge that degrees obtained by online and distance means are not always recognised by relevant authorities such as ministries of education or regulators for public sector employment or further study. You recognise that it is solely your responsibility to check the position regarding such recognition in your local context before registering for an online and distance degree;

- 8.2.3 use all efforts to fulfil the academic requirements of your Programme in accordance with the terms of the Contract, including ensuring that all work you submit is entirely your own; and
- 8.2.4 comply with the University requirements to maintain the integrity of research and abide by the Ethics policy and procedures at clause 1.3.14.
- 8.3 You recognise that your registration may be terminated on academic grounds (other than failure in a prescribed examination) under the circumstances set out in the University's Ordinances at clause 1.3.1.

9 FEE PAYMENTS AND PAYMENT METHODS

- 9.1 You agree to pay all Tuition Fees required for your Programme by the deadlines specified in the SAS Tuition Fee Policy. Information in relation to Tuition Fees and how to pay can be found at clause 1.3.7. Fees are payable in accordance with the SAS Tuition Fee Policy and the Fee Payment Methods.
- 9.2 Any fees payable to external parties, including, where applicable, visa administration fees or fees payable to third party processors, are your sole responsibility.
- 9.3 Tuition Fees are payable to us in full. Where any applicable law requires local taxes or charges to be paid, these are your sole responsibility in addition to the Tuition Fees.

10 TUITION FEES

- 10.1 To register for each Academic Year, you must pay the Tuition Fees. Until Tuition Fees are paid in full:
 - 10.1.1 you cannot register with us for your year of study; and
 - 10.1.2 we will not release your Programme materials to you, including through the Virtual Learning Environment, or provide access to the SAS Libraries and Senate House Library.
- 10.2 Each Academic Year you will be required to re-register with the University and pay the applicable Tuition Fees for that year, noting that Tuition Fees may rise annually as set out in the SAS Tuition Fee Policy at clause 1.3.9.

11 STUDENT WITHDRAWAL OR INTERRUPTION OF STUDIES

- 11.1 Where you withdraw from a Programme or interrupt your studies, any requests for a refund will be dealt with in accordance with our Credit Balances and Refunds Policy.

12 PAYMENT OF FEES BY A THIRD PARTY

- 12.1 If a third party is paying all or part of your fees, you will be liable for the payment of those fees in the event of non-payment by the third party.

13 NON-PAYMENT OF FEES

- 13.1 Until all outstanding Tuition Fees are paid to us, we reserve the right at any time during the Academic Year to suspend or withhold all education-related services and facilities (including examination entry, Virtual Learning Environment services, and provision of student support).
- 13.2 Before exercising our rights under clause 13.1, we will give you reasonable notice of our intentions.
- 13.3 If you are in debt to us for Tuition Fees, you may not be allowed to sit your examinations and we reserve the right not to allow you to register for the next Academic Year.
- 13.4 If you are in the final year of your Programme, we will not release your certificate, or a letter of confirmation of award, until all outstanding Tuition Fees are paid. In order to attend the Graduation Ceremony your Tuition Fees must be paid in full.

14 LIABILITY

- 14.1 The University does not seek to limit or exclude its liability for death or personal injury arising out of the University's negligence or fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation or for any other liability which the University cannot limit or exclude by law.
- 14.2 Subject to Clause 14.1, the University (including its staff and/or representatives) shall have no liability to you for any loss, damage, costs or expenses arising under or in connection with this Contract except where such loss or damage is directly caused by the University (or its staff or representatives). The University will not be liable for any losses that were not reasonably foreseeable to both parties when the Contract was formed. These are often referred to as indirect or consequential losses. The University does not accept liability for loss of opportunity or loss of profit.

- 14.3 The University does not accept responsibility for any loss or damage to your personal property. You are advised to arrange appropriate insurance against risk of loss or damage before coming to the University.
- 14.4 Any remaining liability or any other liability of the University in contract, tort, breach of statutory duty, misrepresentation or any other liabilities, however occurring, are limited to the total value of Tuition Fees paid by you or on your behalf to the University for your Programme under this Contract.

15 YOUR RIGHT TO CANCEL

- 15.1 When you register, a Contract is formed between you and the University. You may cancel this Contract by the later of (a) 14 days after the date when you pay your Tuition Fees (or, where applicable, the first instalment of the Tuition Fees) or (b) 14 days after the date you are first given access to Programme materials on the Virtual Learning Environment or, if later, physical materials ("the Cancellation Period").
- 15.2 To cancel the Contract within the Cancellation Period, you must clearly inform us of your decision to cancel to: sas.registry@sas.ac.uk or using the model cancellation form in Appendix 1. The date we receive your notice is the Cancellation Date.
- 15.3 If you have made any payment, or any payment has been made on your behalf under this Contract before the Cancellation Date, excluding payment of the Application Fee and Administration Fee, then we will provide you with a full refund as soon as reasonably possible but in any event:
- (a) within 14 days of the Cancellation Date; or
 - (b) within 14 days of the University receiving returned physical materials or receiving satisfactory evidence that the materials have been returned, whichever is earlier.
- 15.4 Where you have received any physical materials, you will have to bear the direct cost of returning these to us in case of cancellation. If you fail to return the materials to us, we will deduct the cost of the materials from the monies you have paid to us prior to making the refund.

16 COMPLAINTS PROCEDURES

- 16.1 If you are dissatisfied with any aspect of your Programme, the University of London Student Complaints Procedures and Academic Appeals Procedures sets out the stages to follow to resolve your concerns as promptly, fairly and amicably as possible.
- 16.2 If you are concerned that an examination may not have been conducted in accordance with the relevant instructions or University Regulations, the Procedure for Consideration of Representations concerning Decisions of Boards of Examiners, outlined in University of London Regulation 1, Annex 3, sets out the stages to follow to make representations for the University to consider on the grounds of administrative or procedural error. No appeals may be brought against the results of examinations on academic grounds.
- 16.3 After you have followed the stages to completion as set out in the University of London Student Complaints and Academic Appeals Procedures or the Procedure for Consideration of Representations concerning Decisions of Boards of Examiners respectively, if you remain dissatisfied, you have the right to make a complaint to the Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education (How to complain to us - OIAHE).

17 DISCIPLINARY OFFENCES

- 17.1 If you do not act in accordance with this Contract, we may take disciplinary action against you under the University of London Ordinances at clause 1.3.1 above. One of the possible outcomes of such an action is that your Contract with us may be terminated and you may be removed from the Programme. As a consequence, you may not be entitled to any refund.

18 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 18.1 You will comply with our Intellectual Property Policy at clause 1.3.5 throughout the Programme.

19 DATA PROTECTION

- 19.1 Your application data will form part of your student record. By entering into the Contract with us, you are giving us the right to hold and process your personal data including some special category personal data. We will process your personal data in accordance with the provisions of the attached Schedule 1 – Data Protection Schedule, our Data Protection Policy, and the Student Privacy Notice.

- 19.2 You agree that the Data Protection Policy and Student Privacy Notice, which can be found in Schedule 1 apply to your application and throughout your registration with us.

20 GENERAL

- 20.1 In the event that the provisions of these Terms and Conditions conflict with the provisions of any of the documents listed in the table at clause 1.3, the provisions of these Terms and Conditions shall prevail.
- 20.2 Each of the clauses in these Terms and Conditions operates separately. If a clause is declared unlawful, the remaining clauses will remain in full force and effect.
- 20.3 This Contract constitutes the entire agreement between you and us. All previous agreements, arrangements and understandings between you and us relating to your admission on to a Programme, whether written or oral, shall have no legal effect unless expressly set out in this Contract.
- 20.4 Where a party fails to enforce its rights under this agreement, or delays in doing so, that will not mean that such party has waived its rights. Where we waive a default by you, this will only be valid when confirmed in writing, and will not apply to any subsequent default by you.
- 20.5 These are the terms of the Contract between you and us. No other person shall have any rights to enforce any of the terms.
- 20.6 The Contract, and any other matters arising out of or in relation to the Contract, are governed by and construed in accordance with English law.
- 20.7 We and you agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts to settle any dispute or claim arising out of or in relation to the Contract.

SCHEDULE 1 – DATA PROTECTION SCHEDULE

1. In this schedule, the following definitions shall apply:
 - 1.1 "Controller", "Personal Data", "Processing" and "Processor" shall have the meanings set out in the Data Protection Act 2018 (the "DPA") and the UK GDPR and "Process" and "Processed" shall be construed accordingly;
 - 1.2 "Data Protection Laws" means all legislation and regulatory requirements in force from time to time in the UK relating to the processing of personal data and the privacy of electronic communications, including (i) the Data Protection Act 2018 (the "DPA"), (ii) the UK GDPR, (iii) the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations 2003 (SI 2003/2426) (as amended), and (iv) any successor UK legislation, as well as the guidance and codes of practice issued by the Information Commissioner or other relevant regulatory authority and applicable to a Party;
 - 1.3 "Special Category Data" shall mean Personal Data that reveals such categories of data as are listed in Article 9(1) of the UK GDPR, namely racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, health or sex life and sexual orientation, genetic data and biometric data which is processed to uniquely identify a person;
 - 1.4 "Standard Contractual Clauses" means as applicable:
 - (a) the standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission for the transfer of Personal Data to third countries issued by the European Commission Decision of 4 June 2021, as amended, varied, supplemented or substituted from time to time, as applicable in respect of transfers of Personal Data from Controllers or Processors in the EEA to Controllers or Processors in Restricted Countries;
 - (b) the addendum approved by the UK Information Commissioner's Office as amended, varied, supplemented or substituted from time to time;
 - (c) the standard contractual clauses adopted by the government of the United Kingdom, or approved by the government of the United Kingdom as updated, replaced, consolidated and/or amended from time to time, for transfers of Personal Data from Controllers or Processors in the UK to Controllers or Processors in Restricted Countries;
 - 1.5 "UK GDPR" means Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of Personal Data and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) OJ L 119/1, 4.5.2016, as incorporated into the laws of the United Kingdom by the UK European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018, and as amended in accordance with the Data Protection, Privacy and Electronic Communications (Amendments etc) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 as may be amended, consolidated, modified, re-enacted or replaced from time to time;

2. The University collects, holds and Processes Personal Data about all applicants to the University and all students at the University. The University uses Personal Data provided by applicants or third parties acting for the applicant and/or students (including Personal Data from application forms) for the following purposes (the "Authorised Purposes"):
 - 2.1 to administer applications and admissions processes and procedures and attendance records after admission;
 - 2.2 to deliver and facilitate your programme of study and provide you with teaching, research and educational services and support;
 - 2.3 to monitor your performance and attendance;
 - 2.4 to enable effective communication with you including without limitation, providing you with information relating to the University's services and products, funding and/or sponsorship opportunities;
 - 2.5 to identify ways to enhance learning, teaching, assessment and the broader student experience;
 - 2.6 to provide you with and manage your use of the University facilities and services and your participation at events;
 - 2.7 to operate the University's security, disciplinary, complaint and quality assurance processes and arrangements;
 - 2.8 to administer the financial aspects of our relationship with you and any funders including processing any payments made by you to the University;
 - 2.9 for legal, personnel, administrative and management purposes including the processing of any Special Category Data which may include information about your physical or mental health or condition in order to provide access arrangements, monitor fitness for study (or where applicable, fitness to practice), leave from study, welfare and extenuating circumstances and/or other uses as may be required by law;

- 2.10 to compile statistical and personal returns which the University may be required to publish or pass to government bodies or the Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA);
- 2.11 for research, archiving and statistical purposes;
- 2.12 to deliver and facilitate our alumni relationship with you and to provide you with communications relating to the same; and
- 2.13 for such further purposes as specified in and in accordance with the University's Data Protection Policy and the applicable Privacy Notice.

3. The University may share your Personal Data with:

- 3.1 third parties that process data on the University's behalf to support the University in fulfilling its obligations and responsibilities to and relationship with you under these Terms and Conditions or where required by law to do so. These include but are not limited to third parties who provide IT support, organisations operating antiplagiarism software on our behalf, third parties who provide apps related to our virtual learning environment, external auditors, third parties who conduct surveys such as the National Student Survey, Insurance brokers, insurers and other related third parties.
- 3.2 credit reference agencies or other credit assessment, debt tracing or fraud prevention organisations to support credit scoring, credit assessment, debt tracing or fraud and money-laundering prevention.
- 3.3 third parties to whom the University is under a duty to disclose or share your Personal Data in order to comply with any legal or regulatory obligation, and to protect the University's rights, property, or the safety of our employees, students, or others;
- 3.4 third parties that request data from the University in order to support or fulfil the third parties' obligations or responsibilities in relation to a contractual relationship with you, for example, a third party sponsor or employer.
- 3.5 third parties to whom the University reasonably considers the disclosure of your Personal Data will assist in relation to the protection of your physical, mental or emotional well-being.

4. The University will only process your Personal Data (including Special Category Data) in accordance with the Authorised Purposes, the University's Data Protection Policy and the applicable Privacy Notice and otherwise as permitted by the Data Protection Laws.

5. In certain circumstances, it may be necessary to transfer your Personal Data (including Special Category Data) outside the UK and/or the EEA. In respect of such transfers, the University shall:

- 5.1 comply with its obligations under the Data Protection Laws; and
- 5.2 take reasonable steps to ensure an adequate level of protection for all Personal Data (including Special Category Data) transferred outside the UK and/or EEA including, where appropriate, entering into the Standard Contractual Clauses with the sub-contractor approved by the University to which Personal Data is transferred.

You must ensure that you are fully aware of the University's policies relating to data protection and data security, including the University's Data Protection Policy and the applicable Privacy Notice and you agree that you shall comply with the above policies and any other policy introduced by the University from time to time to comply with the Data Protection Laws.

6. The University takes the protection of your Personal Data seriously. It is necessary for the University to protect its interests by monitoring computer usage and all communications on its networks (including office telephone networks, mobile telephones usage, social media and email systems). The University collects information on all internet user accounts, social media, email activity and call details and this information is periodically reviewed by authorised staff to ensure compliance with the University's policies and to detect any unauthorised use of the University's IT infrastructure and systems.

Note: It is important to read and understand the Terms and Conditions before proceeding.

- ☐ I have read the above Terms and Conditions. I accept the above Terms and Conditions and agree to be bound by them.
