

Visitor Regulations

Introduction to the Visitor Regulations

We are proud of the University of London's buildings, and are keen for visitors to appreciate their architecture, internal design and associated history. You will appreciate that such buildings can be faced with a broad range of threats. These regulations ensure that adequate protections and security measures are in place to safeguard the buildings and their users.

Which Buildings are Covered by these Visitor Regulations?

The University of London ("UoL") Visitor Regulations operate within Senate House,¹ Stewart House, Student Central, the Institute of Advanced Legal Studies (Charles Clore House) and The Warburg Institute ("UoL premises").

Who is Covered by these Visitor Regulations?

These Visitor Regulations provide for the safety, wellbeing and security of our staff, students, and visitors who are members of the public.

There is no public right of entry into or through UoL premises. We ask that you abide by these Visitor Regulations. If you do not comply with any part of these regulations, you may be asked to leave UoL premises (see regulation 5.1).

1. Admission

- 1.1. We aim to treat visitors with respect at all times, and to help them to access facilities and activities that they are entitled to use.
- 1.2. We regret that it may be necessary, for example in the interests of security or public safety, for us to alter UoL premises opening hours or close specific areas of UoL at any time, and without prior notice.
- 1.3. If it should be necessary to close all or part of any UoL building temporarily for any reason, we may direct you to leave by certain routes, or prevent you from leaving by certain routes.

2. Bag Searches and Other Searches

- 2.1. We regret that it may be necessary, for example in the interests of security or public safety, for us to conduct bag searches at any time, and without prior notice.
- 2.2. If asked, you must allow our security officers to search your bags when you enter UoL premises or when you enter a particular event or exhibition.
- 2.3. At our discretion, and subject to elevated security concerns, we may ask our security officers to carry out pat down searches as a condition of entry to UoL premises. The reason for such a search will be explained and such searches will be conducted by a security officer of an appropriate gender for the visitor who is to be searched.

3. The University as Licensed Premises

- 3.1. UoL has a premises licence for regulated activities under the Licensing Act 2003, pursuant to which we must:
 - a. refuse any person entry (or ask any person to leave), if our security officers believe that person to be intoxicated or behaving antisocially;
 - b. apply age restrictions and/or require proof of age identification for entry to some events or the supply of some services;

¹ In these Regulations, Senate House refers to the South Block of the building, and the North Block entrance to and areas covering the Institute of Historical Research.

- c. limit the number of people permitted into our premises at any time; and/or
 - d. refuse to serve alcohol or to supply other services to any person who is intoxicated or behaving antisocially.
- 3.2. At the end of evening events, you are asked to leave the premises quietly and with due consideration for our residential neighbours.

4. Visitor Conduct

- 4.1. All visitors are expected to conduct themselves in a professional and respectful manner to match the theme and tone of the institution/event they are visiting.
- 4.2. UoL does not abide or tolerate any form of harassment, victimisation or discrimination in any form, including where it is verbal, physical, or on the basis of age, disability, ethnicity, gender reassignment, marital status, pregnancy or maternity, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation.
- 4.3. You are asked to be mindful of signs requesting silence outside of rooms where indicated, and to turn your phone to silent during speaker events and in the libraries.

5. Security Staff

- 5.1. Our Security staff are identifiable by their UoL identity passes. They are authorised by UoL to require you to comply with these visitor regulations or any directions given under them. If our security officers believe you are behaving antisocially or that your conduct causes or is likely to cause risk or disturbance to other visitors, to our staff or to property, you may be refused admission to UoL premises, you may be asked to leave, and/or you may be escorted from the premises.
- 5.2. Please be aware that we will not tolerate violence or abuse to any member of our staff, students or other visitors. Failure to cooperate with the lawful directions of our security staff may put you at risk of committing an offence.
- 5.3. Security staff may use body worn cameras where deemed necessary in relation to elevated security concerns. When they are in use, cameras are visible on the staff member using them and highlighted with a badge or sign. Where possible, security staff will announce when their camera is being activated and turned off. All images are managed in line with UoL's CCTV policy which can be accessed through the Data Protection page on our website.

6. Parking of Vehicles and Provision for Disabled Visitors

- 6.1. We do not provide parking facilities, although some sites have limited parking spaces for people with disabilities.

If you require help to evacuate UoL premises, you should seek the assistance of a member of our staff.
