Access to library e-resources

The four SAS Institute libraries (Advanced Legal Studies, Classical Studies, Historical Research, Warburg) and Senate House Library each subscribe to wide ranges of e-resources in their subject areas. They are available onsite in the libraries from library provided PCs, loanable devices or from your own device linked to the local Wi-Fi and in many cases remotely from any location.

SAS Student ID Card

SAS students are issued with a student ID card on registration that enables use of the facilities and services at the libraries. These are linked to a library account.

They allow entry, borrowing where available, renewal of loans, and access to Wi-Fi, as well as access to e-resources.

See separate information on library registration:
sas.ac.uk/registration-and-induction

Find

- Search in the catalogue of all the libraries at catalogue.libraries.london.ac.uk
- Find articles, chapters, and documents using the 'EDS' search tab
encore.libraries.london.ac.uk/iii/encore/?lang=eng&suite=def
- Browse an electronic resource listing on one of the library websites

Login

- In the libraries, click to connect to the e-resource – usually no login is required
- Primary login – user ID number: Provides full access to subscribed and purchased library content. From the catalogue and SAS websites click on the 'web access', 'remote access' or 'offsite access' links. When prompted, from your SAS student ID cards enter your family name as your User ID and enter the barcode number (normally 10 digits) as your password.

- Additional login – Athens: Directly from publisher websites use the login or institutional login option. Select University of London: External System (ATHENS) in the dropdown list, then School of Advanced Study students. Login using your standard SAS email and password. The Athens login does not provide universal access to content on publisher websites. Please refer to library catalogues and websites to confirm availability of content.

Further help

- There are online notes to help you; look for the info (i) or 'About this Resource' buttons.
- Come to one of the training events held by the libraries. See the example screens and links below.
